R.S. Owens Announces Expansion of Quick Ship Program

Chicago - November, 2009 – Award and frame supplier R.S. Owens announces the expansion of its Quick Ship program, which ships imprinted awards three days after receiving approved art. 50 awards are available for Quick Ship and are easily found on the company's website, www.rsowens.com, under "Quick Ship".

"There are a few constants in our industry," says Larry Maloney, VP Marketing for Owens, "and one is the need for speed. Often a distributor will get a request for an award that is needed within a few days to meet an event, and as a supplier partner we have to be ready to support these occasions. Our US manufacturing facilities enable us to react more quickly than companies which rely on importing, and this domestic production enables us to support a Quick Ship program, which ships imprinted awards in three days following receipt of camera ready art, with no rush charges. We have 50 catalog awards, representing a wide variety of product categories including Art as Awards, Acrylic, Crystal, Glass, Stonecast, Plaques and Frames that are available to ship under this program. We made sure to include items at different price points, so there are many options for distributors when they need something fast."

"Quick Ship award requirements are simple; just use our online .eps templates so we can be sure that artwork is sized and good to go and submit to us by 1:00 CST, and we are ready to ship three business days later. Order sizes are limited to catalog quantities."
